EDITOR INTELLIGENCER:-In your last resu you publish a reply by the attorney-general to Mr. White, our assessor, in regard to the asses-sing of crops. The attorney-general says that the assessor shall add the price of the wheat on the land-for instance, if there are twenty bushels of wheat grown to the scre upon any land, and the price of it is one dollar per bushel, then the assessor shall tax it up $20 more than the rowing, seeding and harvesting said crops, an omission too important to be overlooked by those who shall bear this burthen. Now, sir. ast year wheat sold, in Clay township, at 62% rent of ground, plowing, harrowing, seeding and harvesting. What shall the assessor do in this case? Will he not have to go to the attorney-general again for instruction? We do not allowing us the privilege of common renters, nor for labor done and seed furnished.
